CONFLICT OF INTEREST POLICY

AGHF Inc. d/b/a AgroHouse Foundation

FOR BOARD ADOPTION

Stability • Structure • Growth • Community

Adopted: July 26, 2016

ARTICLE I — PURPOSE

The purpose of this Conflict of Interest Policy is to protect the interests of AGHF Inc. d/b/a AgroHouse Foundation (the "Corporation") whenever it is considering a transaction, arrangement, compensation decision, or activity that may benefit the private interests of an officer, director, employee, volunteer, contractor, or related party. This policy is intended to supplement applicable Florida nonprofit law and Internal Revenue Service requirements for organizations seeking and maintaining tax-exempt status under Section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code.

ARTICLE II — PERSONS COVERED

This policy applies to:

- Directors
- Officers
- Employees
- Volunteers
- Committee Members
- Independent Contractors
- Key Advisors

ARTICLE III — DEFINITIONS

Interested Person

An Interested Person is any individual covered by this policy who has a direct or indirect financial, personal, or business interest related to a matter before the Corporation.

Financial Interest

A person has a financial interest if the person, or a family member, has:

- A compensation arrangement with the Corporation.
- Ownership or investment interest in a business dealing with the Corporation.
- A prospective compensation arrangement.
- A financial benefit resulting from a proposed decision or transaction.
- An expectation of receiving a financial benefit.

Compensation includes: wages, salaries, consulting fees, stipends, housing benefits, reimbursements, contract payments, and other financial benefits.

Family Member

Family members include: spouse, parent, child, sibling, grandparent, grandchild, domestic partner, and any person residing in the same household.

ARTICLE IV — DUTY TO DISCLOSE

Each covered individual has an affirmative duty to disclose any actual, potential, or perceived conflict of interest. Disclosure shall occur before discussion begins, before a vote occurs, and as soon as the conflict becomes known.

ARTICLE V — PROCEDURES

Determination of Conflict

After disclosure, the remaining disinterested Directors shall determine whether a conflict exists.

Abstention

An Interested Person shall refrain from voting, refrain from attempting to influence the vote, and leave the room during discussion if requested by the Board.

Board Review

The Board shall review available information, consider alternative arrangements when appropriate, and determine whether the proposed action is fair and in the best interest of the Corporation.

ARTICLE VI — COMPENSATION MATTERS

The Corporation recognizes that Directors or founders may provide valuable services requiring compensation. Any compensation decision involving a Director, Officer, founder, or related party shall:

1. Be reviewed by disinterested Directors.
2. Be supported by reasonable justification.
3. Be approved prior to payment whenever possible.
4. Be documented in meeting minutes.

Interested individuals shall not vote on their own compensation.

ARTICLE VII — SPECIAL FOUNDER DISCLOSURES

The Board acknowledges that founders may serve operational roles within the Corporation. If a founder receives compensation, reimbursement, or contractual payment, the Board shall document the nature of services provided, document approval of compensation, record abstentions from voting, and maintain records supporting the reasonableness of compensation.

ARTICLE VIII — RECORD OF PROCEEDINGS

The minutes of Board meetings involving conflicts of interest shall include the name of the interested person, the nature of the conflict, the names of individuals participating in discussion, alternative options considered, voting results, and the final determination of the Board.

ARTICLE IX — VIOLATIONS OF POLICY

If the Board has reason to believe an individual has failed to disclose a conflict: (1) the individual shall be informed of the concern; (2) the individual shall have an opportunity to explain; (3) the Board may investigate the matter; and (4) corrective action may be taken if appropriate. Possible corrective actions include a written warning, removal from committee service, removal from officer position, or a recommendation for Board action consistent with the Bylaws.

ARTICLE X — CONFIDENTIALITY

Information disclosed through this policy shall be kept confidential to the extent practical and permitted by law.

ARTICLE XI — ANNUAL DISCLOSURE REQUIREMENT

Each Director and Officer shall annually complete and sign a Conflict of Interest Disclosure Statement. Signed statements shall be maintained with the Corporation's official records.
