RECORD RETENTION & DOCUMENT DESTRUCTION POLICY

AGHF Inc. d/b/a AgroHouse Foundation

FOR BOARD ADOPTION

Stability • Structure • Growth • Community

Adopted:

July 26, 2026

1. PURPOSE

This policy establishes guidelines for the retention and destruction of AGHF Inc. d/b/a AgroHouse Foundation (the "Corporation") records, and ensures compliance with applicable federal and Florida law, including record-retention obligations associated with 501(c)(3) tax-exempt status.

2. LEGAL HOLD

Notwithstanding the retention periods below, no document shall be destroyed or deleted if it is subject to a pending or reasonably anticipated litigation hold, audit, or government investigation. The Chairperson and Secretary are responsible for suspending destruction of relevant records upon notice of such a hold.

3. RETENTION SCHEDULE

Record Category	Retention Period

4. ELECTRONIC RECORDS

Electronic records, including email, cloud-stored documents, and financial software records, are subject to the same retention periods as their paper equivalents. The Corporation shall maintain reasonable backup and security procedures for electronic records.

5. METHOD OF DESTRUCTION

Paper records shall be destroyed by shredding or another method that renders the information unreadable. Electronic records shall be permanently deleted, including from backup systems where feasible, using methods that prevent recovery of confidential information.

6. RESPONSIBILITY

The Secretary, in coordination with the Treasurer, is responsible for implementing this policy, maintaining an organized filing system (physical and/or electronic), and periodically reviewing records for destruction eligibility, subject to any legal hold.

7. POLICY REVIEW

The Board shall review this policy periodically and update it as necessary to remain consistent with applicable law and best practices.
