This policy provides a mechanism for reporting suspected illegal, unethical, or improper conduct and protects individuals who make such reports in good faith from retaliation.

The Corporation strictly prohibits retaliation against any individual who, in good faith, reports suspected misconduct or participates in an investigation of such a report. Retaliation includes termination, demotion, suspension, harassment, or any other adverse action taken because an individual made a good-faith report.

Any individual who retaliates against a person who has reported a concern in good faith is subject to discipline, up to and including removal from the Board, termination of employment, or termination of a volunteer or contractor relationship.
