MISSION, VISION & ORGANIZATIONAL GUIDING PRINCIPLES

Mission Statement

AgroHouse Foundation exists to strengthen communities through outreach stabilization, food security, sustainable agriculture, workforce development opportunities, and future vocational housing systems that promote long-term stability, self-sufficiency, and dignity.

Vision Statement

To create a sustainable ecosystem where outreach, agriculture, workforce development, and vocational opportunities work together to strengthen individuals, families, and communities.

Core Values

Stability

Creating reliable systems that communities can depend upon.

Sustainability

Building long-term solutions rather than temporary responses.

Stewardship

Managing resources responsibly, ethically, and transparently.

Community

Working alongside existing organizations and community partners rather than replacing them.

Opportunity

Creating pathways for growth, education, employment, and self-sufficiency.

Dignity

Serving individuals with respect while preserving personal choice, independence, and self-worth.
